Welcome

Youth Conference

April 5-7, 1957

Dear Friends,

The students and faculty of Taylor University want to extend to you Taylor's welcome to the 1957 Youth Conference. We are looking forward with great expectation to meeting each one of you who is planning to come.

The theme "Weighed in the Balance" has been chosen with the firm conviction that each of us needs to come to the position in which he is able to measure up to God's standards.

We know where the answer lies. It lies in Jesus Christ the Son and in our right relationship through Him to the Father. What will we do about it?

Your friends in Christ,
Marty & Jay, Co-chairmen

Youth Conference Brings You . . .

Dr. Robert A. Cook EVANGELIST

Dr. Robert Cook, better known to young people as "Doctor Bob," has been associated with Youth for Christ International since 1948, and has been a key man in its spread to 81 countries and colonies. Dr. Cook is well-known as a speaker, author, song-leader, youth director and pastor. His good sense of humor, coupled with his Bible-based sermons and challenges, has made him a favorite of youth all over the world.

G. Christian Weiss MISSIONARY

G. Christian Weiss has been the head of the Missions Department of Back to the Bible Broadcast, Lincoln, Nebraska, since 1952. Most of his life has been spent in missionary work. After a term in Morocco, North Africa, working among the Mohammedans, he was for thirteen years the President and General Director of the Gospel Missionary Union. Through his experiences and his extensive travels, he has also written several books.

How long halt ye? . . .

MARTHA BAILEY

Co-Chairman

One Sunday morning after church, I was walking home with a Christian lady who told me I ought to become a Christian. Those few simple words and the fact that she prayed for me started a reaction in my heart which culminated in my salvation a few days later. Certainty of forgiveness of sins and of a new and continuing kinship with God through his Son, Jesus Christ, is the greatest gift of life. Since that first decision the Lord has brought me to a place of complete consecration of my life to Him and to His service on the foreign mission field. The verses which He perhaps uses most to speak to me are Romans 12:1,2; I do want my life to be a living sacrifice for Him.

As we approach the time of Youth Conference, may each of us give our hearts and minds to that which the Lord will have for us, and then be quick to obey Him.

JAY KESLER

Co-Chairman

Looking back as a senior in college to the experiences of my life, I am convinced that the most climactic of these took place while I was a high school senior. At that time I was looking, to no avail, to the world for something to satisfy my quest for a purpose to life. A classmate told me of Jesus Christ and his desire for my life, and shortly afterward I received Jesus Christ into my heart as personal Savior. He has given me purpose and satisfaction in exchange for my trust in Him.

I am keenly concerned for the teen-agers of our day and am convinced that only in Christ is the answer to the crisis of each heart and the world. My prayer is that the entire drive of my life will be to present Christ as the answer to those who are "weighed in the balance."

From the Y C Bulletin Board

Teen Talent Time: Chorister Ken Gangel has announced a special youth talent audition to be held Saturday, April 6. The three chosen youth will be participating in one of the Youth Conference Services. If you have special talent be prepared for the tryouts.

Registration: We have facilities for 1,000 young people between the ages of 14 and 23. All registrations should be in by March 23. When our goal of 1,000 is reached, we will have to refuse further applications. There will be no refunds on accepted registrations. Housing will be furnished for sponsors.

Meal Policy: The Friday evening meal is not included on the meal ticket. Meals will be served on schedule.

What to Bring: This is your Youth Conference and we want you to be comfortable. Bring clothes you'll feel comfortable in—both in the services and in informal social situations. Remember, you are only here two days.

Bedding: Mattresses will be furnished. The rest of the bedding is your responsibility.

Insurance: All persons registered will be covered by an insurance policy included in the registration fee.
